

APPLICATION FORM

Proprietary Company Limited by Shares

Please read the following before completing this application form.

By completing and submitting the application you confirm as follows:

1. if applicable, the occupier of the registered office consents to being named as the company's registered office by completing and signing the attached consent form;
2. the named director(s) has consented to being named as a director of the company by completing and signing the attached consent form;
3. the named secretary(ies) has consented to being named as a secretary of the company by completing and signing the attached consent form;
4. the named public officer has consented to being named as public officer of the company by completing and signing the attached consent form; and
5. you have satisfied yourself that the proposed company name (and any proposed trading name) does not breach the intellectual property rights of any other person.

Please note that the law gives extensive protection to intellectual property rights and the fact that a company name is available for registration does not mean that it will not breach some other person's intellectual property rights.

If the original members want to own a specific class of shares (e.g. "Class X" etc.) it may be necessary to document the precise terms of the issue of those shares. The constitution does not provide for "pro-forma terms" for any particular share class, as they vary from company to company. Please contact us if you require specific share classes.

The original members may also wish to include a pre-emptive rights provision, giving themselves first right to acquire shares on the issue or transfer of shares, or on the death or default of a shareholder. We generally recommend that such provisions are contained in a shareholders agreement or buy-sell deed, rather than in the constitution. Please contact us if you require a shareholders agreement or a buy-sell deed.
